Library Volunteers Recognized

On May 6, the Law Library and the Board of Trustees hosted a volunteer appreciation luncheon to recognize and thank those individuals who have generously given their time over the past few years to make the Law Library a success. The volunteers who were present at the luncheon were Katherine Greene, Jackie Greenfield, Thelma Helyar, Robb Mead, Joyce McCray Pearson, and Bill Pendleton. Those volunteers not in attendance were Jane Ballagh, Anjali Dooley, Allison Greenfield, Erich Haught, Rob Klotz, and Jenna Townley.

Newsletter Offering Classified Ads

A classified ad section has been added to the Newsletter. Ads are located at the end of the Newsletter above the publication information. Anyone who wishes to place a classified ad (free of course) in the Newsletter should contact the Law Library. The Editor reserves the right to refuse anything deemed inappropriate and to add restrictions as the need arises.

Current Art Gallery Exhibition

The current exhibit in the Douglas County Law Library Art Gallery is artwork by Sue Suhler.

The exhibition will run through the end of June. Works in the collection are for sale and may be purchased directly from the artist. Contact information for Ms. Suhler is available in the Library.

The July 2005 exhibition will feature photography by local attorney Hudson Luce. More information on this exhibit will be in the July E-Mail Newsletter.

Art Gallery Exhibitions

For more information on current and future Art Gallery exhibitions, or for more information on the Art Gallery, please consult the Art Gallery page on the Law Library's website.

If you would like to exhibit your art in our gallery, or know of local artists who would like to show their original art here, contact Bill Pendleton, the Library's Art Gallery Exhibitions Coordinator at 843-3536 ext. 15 or billpen@pendletonandsutton.com, or the Law Library at 838-2477 or by e-mail at info@douglascolawlibrary.org.

Current Law Library Volunteer Opportunities

The Library is looking for individuals to fill the following volunteer positions:

Reference Assistant.

The Library also has opportunities for volunteers to create positions around their own interests and skills.

For more information and/or for position descriptions, contact the Library or visit the "Volunteers" page on the Law Library's website.

Library Volunteer Program

The Law Library Volunteer Program provides a capable and dependable voluntary work force to assist with the day-to-day operations of the Law Library and its special projects. This work force supplements the paid Library staff and allows the Library to provide the best possible service to local judges, attorneys, and the public.

The Volunteer Program is instrumental in linking a valuable community resource - the citizens - with a valuable community institution - the Douglas County Law Library - for the benefit, growth, and enrichment of both.

If you or someone you know might be interested in volunteering for one of them, or if you would like more information on our program and/or the positions we have open, please contact the Library or visit the "Volunteers" page on the Law Library's website.

Feedback

This Newsletter is intended to be useful to its readers. As in any enterprise, feedback on how the Newsletter is fulfilling this goal is crucial to our achieving it.
