Law Library Celebrates Its First Anniversary

The Douglas County Law Library celebrated its first anniversary with an open house on Friday, April 30th. The event was well attended and was a good kick-off for the Library's second year.

Law Library Art Gallery Now Open

The Douglas County Law Library Art Gallery's grand opening was held as part of the Library's anniversary celebration on April 30th. Gallery exhibitions for individual artists will generally be scheduled for a month at a time with new exhibitions beginning around the first of each month. Information about the current exhibit is contained in the next article.

Art Gallery Exhibitions

The current exhibit in the Douglas County Law Library Art Gallery is titled "The Lawrence Riverfront Trail: an exhibition of photography by Hudson Luce." The exhibition will run from April 30 to May 28, 2004. The photographs in the collection are for sale and can be purchased by contacting Mr. Luce directly.

The June 2004 exhibition will feature artwork by May Mitchell. More information on this exhibit will be in the June E-Mail Newsletter.

For more information on current and future Art Gallery exhibitions, or for more information on the Art Gallery, please consult the Art Gallery page on the Law Library's web site at http://www.douglascolawlibrary.org/art_gallery.html.

If you would like to exhibit your art in our gallery, or know of local artists who would like to show their original art here, contact Bill Pendleton, the Library's Art Gallery Exhibitions Coordinator at 843-3536 ext. 15 or billpen@pendletonandsutton.com, or the Law Library at 838-2477 or info@douglascountylawlibrary.org.

Library Volunteer Program

The Law Library is continuing to organize its Volunteer Program with the intent of providing a capable and dependable voluntary work force to assist with the day-to-day operations of the Law Library and its special projects. This work force will supplement the paid Library staff and allow the Library to provide the best possible service to local judges, attorneys, and the public.

The Volunteer Program is instrumental in linking a valuable community resource - the citizens - with a valuable community institution - the Douglas County Law Library - for the benefit, growth, and enrichment of both.

We have already had success in our search for volunteers. As of this writing, we have three individuals who will be working in the Law Library on a regular basis and several others who have indicated interest when their future schedules permit. We will profile these volunteers in future issues of the E-Mail Newsletter.

The volunteer positions that we are currently looking to fill are noted in the next article. If you or someone you know might be interested in volunteering for one of them, or if you would like more information on our program and/or the positions we have open, please contact the Library or visit the new "Volunteers" page on the Law Library's web site at: <http://www.douglascolawlibrary.org/volunteers.html>.

Volunteer Opportunities in the Law Library

The Library is looking for individuals to fill the following volunteer positions:

Reference Assistant.

Work Station Maintenance Assistant.

For more information and/or for position descriptions, contact the Library or visit: <http://www.douglascolawlibrary.org/volunteers.html>.
